“ Dear Walker Family: I am very sorry for the recent loss of your dearly beloved one and please accept my sincerest condolences, by allowing me to share scriptures that I have personally found to be of great comfort. The Bible tells us that "Our Heavenly Father is close to the brokehearted and he saves those who are crushed in spirit" {Psalms 34:17,18}. Losing our love ones to death was not His original purpose when He place Adam/Eve in the beautiful "Garden of Eden"{Genesis 1:27,28}. His promises to "swallowing up death forever"{Isaiah 25:8}; do away with the one who causes death, Satan{Heb. 2:14}; and restore perfect peaceful conditions, for his people, worldwide{Psalms 37:9-11, 29} will soon be a reality. May His love surround you during your time of grief and allow you to mediate on such future promises. I truly hope these scriptural thoughts brings you some comfort and to receive more encouraging words of ways to cope with your grief, visit jw.org. Once again, I am very sorry for your loss.
