“ Please accept my condolences. Death is indeed our enemy because when God created Adam and Eve, it was never his purpose for them to die. Sadly, they sinned, paid the prescribed penalty of death and as their descendants, we all inherited sin and ultimately death. God’s original purpose of endless life for humans was not defeated. Yes, Almighty God has not only the power but he yearns to resurrect those who have died (Job 14:13-15). Also, Jesus Christ said: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.” John 5:28, 29. Jesus showed that the dead can live again by the resurrections he performed when on earth. So yes, we hurt now but in the near future will rejoice with happy tears when we see our dead loved ones again. Revelation 21:3, 4. I do hope these words give some comfort.

“ To the family of Mr Tramel, I extend my sincerest condolences for the recent loss of your loved one. Such loss is always very painful since losing our loved ones to death was not part of God’s original purpose and he promises to bring this pain to an end by swallowing up death forever (Hebrews 2:14) Soon through God’s Kingdom in the hands of his Son Christ Jesus, God’s purpose for mankind will be realized which is to live on a paradise earth under perfect and peaceful conditions (Psalms 37:9-11,29) I hope you find these scriptural thoughts comforting.
