

Mr. Rinaldo R. Gallucci

February 2, 1923 - October 14, 2021

Mr. Rinaldo (Len) Gallucci has finally finished his course and made it home to be with his Savior, The Lord Jesus Christ. Mr. Gallucci passed away Thursday, October 14, 2021, at Pinewood Nursing Center in Whigham, Georgia. Len will be interred in the Georgia Veterans Memorial Cemetery in Milledgeville, Georgia, with military honors. A memorial service will be held at Cox Funeral Home. The date and time will be announced later.

Len Gallucci was born February 2, 1923, in Montclair, New Jersey to Tony Gallucci and Mary Ann DeAngelus Gallucci. He attended Montclair High. Len enlisted in the U.S. Army Air Force during World War II. While in the Air Force he attended various schools of instruction on maintenance of engines, electrical systems, and instruments. Upon completion of his training, he was made an instructor, teaching courses in the maintenance of engines and electrical systems of aircraft. He was sent to Wilmington, Delaware air base where he was placed in charge of a crew made up of civilians and G.I.'s performing the inspection and electrical maintenance of various aircraft.

Len attended Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri and Central Bible College in Springfield, Missouri. He graduated with a BA in Theology. Upon graduation he returned home and to his church, Bethel of Newark, N.J. and served as youth pastor.

Len married Lorraine Corcoran, his beloved wife of 65 years. Len's final place of employment before retirement was as a sales rep for Cold Air of Vero Beach, Florida. He and his wife were active in Special Force Family Ministries, a ministry for the physically disabled and the mentally challenged located in Minnesota and Missouri from 1990 to 2003. In October 2003, Len, Lorraine, and Valerie (their daughter) moved to Bainbridge, Georgia. He was an active member of Fellowship Baptist Church.

Len is survived by his daughter, Valerie Jean Gallucci of Whigham, Georgia; brother-in-law, Everett Linville of Cornelius, North Carolina; sister-in-law, Christine Corcoran of Arizona; several nieces and great nieces; and nephews and great-nephews. He was preceded in death by his wife, Lorraine Corcoran Gallucci and his son, Ronald Richard Gallucci.

In lieu of flowers, friends are asked to give in honor of Mr. Gallucci to the charity of their choice.

On-line condolences may be sent at <http://www.Coxfuneral.net>. Cox Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Cemetery

Georgia Veterans Memorial Cemetery

2617 Vinson Highway

Milledgeville, GA, 31061

Comments

“ Leonard Gallucci, a true salesman and so successful in the Sales Field. He served honorably in the military to protect our Country. Leonard loved God and was always willing to serve where needed in Church. He loved his family and so missed Lorraine and Ronnie who have passed on before him. Praise God the Family is being reunited once again! By Christine Corcoran.

Christine Corcoran - October 17, 2021 at 11:42 PM

“ Uncle Len will be greatly missed, as he loved generously and fully. I'll always remember him talking with my boys when they were little. He had a real sense of humor with them. I clearly and lovingly remember when my youngest son Jimmy told him; “my mom buys the cheap chocolate chip cookies, I wonder what the ‘Chips-A-Hoy’ cookies are like!” The next time and every visit after that, he bought a couple packages of Chips-A-Hoy cookies with him which both my sons enjoyed tremendously and will never forget... nor will I! His love for family, friends and our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ of Nazareth, radiated throughout his lifetime.

Judy Weltin - October 15, 2021 at 11:15 AM